

If you can access the Web, you can track your American Fast Freight shipments. Anytime. Anywhere.

AMERICAN FAST FREIGHT
Serving Alaska, Hawaii and Guam

Where in the world is your shipment? We make it easy to find out fast.

If you have Web access and a few moments of time, you can determine the status of any shipment you have in the American Fast Freight system. Our Data Center's Freight Tracing makes it all fast and very easy.

Keep tabs on your valuable cargo – The more valuable your cargo, the more important it is to know exactly where it is and when it will arrive. That's the whole idea behind the American Fast Freight Data Center. Once you have set up an account, you can log on any time to check on your shipments.

The information you need, when you need it – The versatile searching capability of American Fast Freight Tracing means you can get the exact information you need. You can search by American Fast Freight (AFF) Barcode, AFF Pro, purchase order, or shipper number. By description of goods shipped. Or by shipment date. And you can combine these criteria for more powerful searches.

Versatile search options make it easy and fast to locate the shipment you're looking for. You can search by any or all criteria shown.

As an American Fast Freight customer, you're entitled to access our Data Center, which lets you track your shipments anytime from any PC with Web access.

Detailed shipment information with a click – Once you have entered your search criteria, simply click the Search button and in seconds the Freight Tracing system presents you with records of all the shipments that match your search terms. Click on the one you want for complete shipment detail.

The AFF Freight Tracing system gives you detailed information about your shipment, right down to the delivery time.

Get started today – It's just as easy to sign up for American Fast Freight Tracing as it is to use it. Go to our Website at www.americanfast.com and click on Data Center. Then complete the brief application. You'll be contacted with your username and password within 48 hours.

Putting you first – Our Data Center and Freight Tracing are two more ways American Fast Freight puts you first. If you'd like to know more about this service or any of our other shipping services, please call us at 800-642-6664.
