Keep From Freezing Service (Alaska Market)
2011-2012 Waiver of Liability

As an authorized representative of the company listed below, with authority to enter into this agreement, my company hereby waives Keep From Freezing Protective Service (KFF). By declining KFF, I/WE accept all responsibility for the condition of the product received at its final destination. By waiving KFF the company also agrees to hold American Fast Freight, Inc., harmless against any and all damage or loss asserted by Company, and further agrees to defend and indemnify American Fast Freight against any claims filed by any other party, due by freezing or other temperature damage to product. We understand that this waiver encompasses the time period beginning on September 26, 2011 and ending approximately in April 2012, depending on weather conditions.
