

From Corporate Communications

American Fast Freight hires new Director of Sales, Western Region

Tony Marques brings over 25 years of sales leadership experience to the company.

FIFE, WASH., Dec. 28, 2011 -- American Fast Freight (AFF) is pleased to announce that Tony Marques has been hired as the company's new Director of Sales, Western Region.

Tony will be based in the Rancho Dominguez, Calif., office of AFF's division, Hawaiian Ocean Transport. He will oversee sales in the western half of the United States to ensure the company's continued growth and that customer service goals are exceeded.

"Tony has an impressive track record of sales leadership and identifying potential opportunities," said AFF Vice President, Sales Craig Forbes. "We believe he is the right person to lead our sales team to new levels of success."

Before joining AFF, Tony worked as Executive Vice President Sales for Western Regional Delivery Service in Fullerton, Calif. Prior to that, Tony worked for FedEx National in Los Angeles. The longest stretch of Tony's cargo transportation career was with Watkins Motor Lines in Los Angeles, where he worked up from Sales Manager to Regional Sales Manager. His tenure in transportation so far spans over 30 years.

"What delights me about being part of the AFF/HOT team is that I am joining a people-first company that really values the efforts of their employees," Tony said. "This is a first-class organization with direction and focus. I'm extremely proud to be part of this team."

