Your transportation services partner to and from Hawaii.

At AFF Hawaiian Ocean Transport, we offer both LCL and FCL service from all West Coast ports to Oahu and the neighbor islands.

There's a simple way to eliminate the aggravation and confusion involved in shipping between the mainland and Hawaii: call us—AFF Hawaiian Ocean Transport. We're the logistics experts specializing in service between the mainland and Hawaii, with service from Southern California ports to Guam. So we can assure you of the best service, consistent transit times, and competitive prices. Every time.

Comprehensive national coverage
Our terminals in Hawaii, coupled with those in Seattle-Tacoma, Oakland, Long Beach, and Chicago make us easy to reach. And our marketing and interline agreements mean we can arrange for truck, rail, and air connections into any of our facilities for final consolidation into ocean-compatible containers.

What's more, you'll get a single invoice for all charges, door-to-door. You see, we believe our job is to make yours a lot easier.

The support of a complete Distribution Service

If you have a number of locations throughout Hawaii and need a cost effective way to ship to all of them at once, ask for our Distribution Service.

We'll pick up multiple shipments at the same time and location and move them as a single shipment into Hawaii. Then we'll route each separate shipment to the individual consignees throughout the Islands.

This efficient service enables you to use just one carrier, lower your overall transportation costs, and enjoy significantly improved communications regarding the disposition of each shipment while in transit.

A flexible, convenient assembly service

We offer sophisticated programs for purchasing agents and buyers. Just provide us with a list of your suppliers and a copy of the purchase orders and we'll contact

We ship on vessels departing from all of the major West Coast ports with transit times of as little as four days.

each supplier and arrange for pickup at their door.

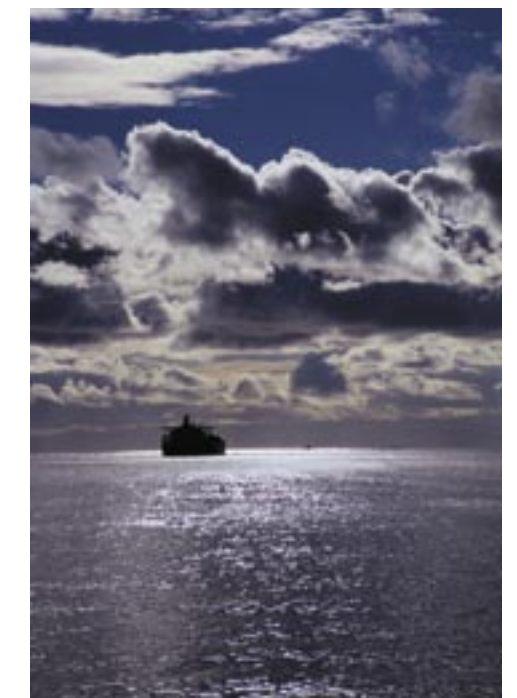

All shipments tied to any given project will then be consolidated at our facility and moved and delivered to you as a single shipment.

That gives you maximum control over your freight while cutting costs.

Hawaii: our market niche

We can guarantee you the highest quality service, flexible programs, and competitive pricing on surface transportation for one simple reason: it's what we do.

So the next time you need help getting product to Hawaii, do what a number of local companies do: call the logistics experts at Hawaiian Ocean Transport.

No one knows how to move containerized freight between the Mainland and Hawaii like we do.
